What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription." The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alternative of blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels, bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or otherwise stages of these ailments it is often successful in effecting a cure.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of all cases of disease, including weak, nervous, and debilitated conditions, and is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formula of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into "Doctor Pierce's medicines" by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pills, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

$300 PIANO AT AUCTION.
The Star Attraction of the Pure Food Show. The handsome Berkeley Piano in the F. G. Smith Piano Co.'s Exhibit to go to the highest bidder.

An auction is always interesting—always fascinating—with its chance of getting something you really want at a price of your own naming, which is invariably a great deal less than the article is really worth.

There'll be an auction at the Pure Food Show. It'll prove the "fire-wire" of the whole show. The F. G. Smith Piano Company will put up a handsome $300 B.keley which will be sold to the highest bidder no matter how little or how much is bid. Everybody who visits the show should put in a bid. All bids will be considered and there is always the chance that your bid will be the highest and the piano will be yours.

The piano to be auctioned is part of the F. G. Smith Piano Company's exhibit of high-grade Bradbury, Webster and B.keley pianos, manufactured and sold direct at factory prices by this concern. These instruments were awarded a gold medal at the recent Jamestown Exposition and are beautiful examples of the finest pianos built.

When you visit the show be sure and put in a bid for the Berkeley piano.

IDENTIFIED ABDUCTOR.
As was stated in the Gazette, Willie Whittle yesterday identified the man and woman held on suspicion by the Cleveland, Ohio, police as the persons who kidnapped him from the school at Sharps, Pa., a week ago, and held him for the $10,000 ransom, which was paid by his father, Attorney J. P. Whittle, Monday.

Willie said the man, who gave the name of James H. Boyle, was the one who took him from school and carried him through a toruous, back to Cleveland, then to Ashtabula route to Cleveland and placed him in the house in east end, where he was held until the money was paid. Willie also declared that the woman was the one who cared for him at the house where he was detained, and who acted the part of a nurse.

Boyle said the woman is his wife. The police have no other identification of the couple than the names given. So far as the man is concerned, the police believe the name is correct. Boyle is said to reside in Sharon and is a plumber by trade.

Boyle smiled sarcastically throughout the trial, but said no word. He eyed his accusers defiantly. When Willie concluded Boyle was taken back to his cell and the woman was brought in.

She was defiant and haughty in her demeanor. Blandly she stared at Willie and the other members of the party. Her only relapse from the indignant manner was when she saw Willie. The woman smiled.

Immediately Willie walked up to her and, extending his hand, said: "How do you do?"

"Hello, Willie," the woman replied, as she placed her hand upon his head and caressed him for an instant.

The boy then stepped back to his father and was asked several questions by the chief of police.

"Yes, I know her," he said. "She was the nurse who took care of me in Cleveland. She told me I was sick and in a hospital. I saw her a whole lot, as she was with me most all of the time."

Notwithstanding the woman's former assertion that there would be a sensation when she was identified or when Willie saw her, she and Willie looked at each other without any outward evidence of recognition. They did not speak with each other. Neither did she speak with any other member of the party.

Immediately after Willie Whittle had seen the man and woman at the Central Police Station they were taken to the county courthouse and there appeared before the grand jury. They were examined for the purpose of adding the jury in its attempt to find an indictment against the two prisoners. The charge under the laws of Ohio against the man and woman, if an indictment was found, will be blackmail. This is based upon a payment of $10,000 ransom paid by Mr. Whittle.

As Boyle and his wife are held by the police on suspicion only, an indictment will afford a means of placing them under arrest formally and then they can be held indefinitely.

Immediately after leaving the grand jury room Mr. and Mrs. Whittle, Willie and the janitor of the Sharon school which Willie attended left for Sharon.

As the prisoners have not waived extradition, they will be held at Cleveland for two or three days until the necessary papers for their removal to Sharon can be arranged between the governors of Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The $10,000 ransom was paid to the kidnapers in a little grocery store at east Fifty-third street and Standard avenue in Cleveland an hour after Monday. The money was received by an ordinarily dressed working man, who gave his name as Hayes.

He picked up the package filled with yellow-back bills, smiled nonchalantly and left.

Mrs. Bernard Hendrickson, temporarily in charge of the store for her mother forgot to notice which way the man went.

The man stepped into the store and asked if a package had been left there for him. Mrs. Hendrickson, without noting his appearance, told him there had been no package. An hour later a prosperous-looking man, who said his name was Williams, came in with a small package in his pocket. This was Mr. Whittle.

"He said he wanted to leave it for a man named Hayes," said Mrs. Hendrickson. "He asked if Hayes had been here and I said he had. Williams left the package, and not two minutes later Hayes came in and asked: 'Is my package here?'"

"I told him that it was and he smiled. Without another word he took it from where it lay, on top of the cigar case, and went away."

TO BE ELECTROCUTED.

The jury at Powhatan Courthouse Va. after 40 minutes deliberation yesterday, returned a verdict, finding Joe and Isiah Taylor and Lewis Jenkins guilty of murder in the first degree, and fixing the latter punishment at fifteen years in the penitentiary.

The first degree murder verdict carries with it death in the electric chair. The men are three of a number of negroes charged with murdering Mrs. Mary E. Salpith and Walter G. Johnson, the manager of her estate, and afterward setting fire to the historic home, Southbat.

The evidence against the three principals was convincing. Jenkins' own testimony would have convicted him without any other. Jenkins made a sort of confession, in which he told a remarkable tale of having "dreamed" of the crime beforehand.
